

The Pochin School

Newsletter 14th October 2022

Dear Parents,

Congratulations to the PTA for raising a fantastic £1800 from the school Autumn Fayre last Saturday. Thank you to everyone who contributed, helped on the day and supported by attending. I am sure everyone is looking forward to the school disco on Thursday 27th October.

It has been a busy last week with two residentials and a whole school trip. We hope parents have enjoyed the photos from Min Y Don and look forward to sharing pictures from the other trips once these are collated.

The children in Class 5 thoroughly enjoyed their visit to Mr Pochin's house last week. He showed them a number of artefacts from the World War which fascinated them. Mr Pochin shared his family history and explained how the various objects had been used. It really helped to bring our learning to life. Our Head boy and Head girl thanked Mr and Mrs Pochin on our behalf.

Just a polite reminder that if parents no longer require a session at any of our clubs, this includes if your child is on a school trip and does not need wraparound care, this must be cancelled by the parent giving a months' notice, unless the school has given less than a months' notice of the trip.

We hope you all have a lovely half term holiday.
