

A

River

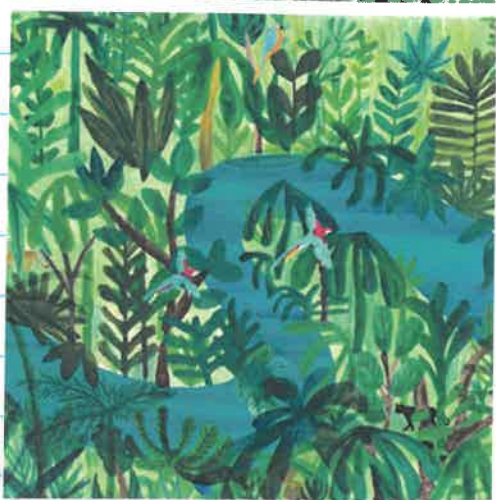

I peered thru my window and I spied a beautiful shimmering river. Is this the start of an amazing adventure I thought.

I dashed to the boat yard as quick as I could.

when I got there I was surprised to see that the place was abandoned. Quickly I pulled out my shiny silver boat that I left there last year. As new as ever. As I hurried to the dock I saw a bustling city. I am ready to embark on my new adventure. When I got to the dock the smoldering sun on my skin was steaming like molten lava. The clouds were as fluffy as candy-gloss. And the sky was as blue as a whale swimming beneath the sea. Suddenly I ran home because I knew I had to get supplies for my amazing adventure. The buildings were as tall as sky scrapers!

I got back and I grabbed my oars and started to sail down the river. As I sailed thru the jungle the wind was pushing past my golden long hair. And my hands started to tremble. When the water started to get a bit faster! Suddenly I saw a vast black geline lurking behind the trees in the distance. I turned around and I saw a yellow geline with brown sploges on its back. Up above me parrots cirkled high above the trees glamboyantly I couldn't help smiling at them with my creamy white teeth. As I sailed thru the jungle.

Soon I reached the mouth. And then the sea. The waves crashing on the sides of the boat. The sky turned black and a storm rolled in. As I tried to sail on it's tributese pushing me from side to side!

But just then I found my seas back in my bedroom again the salty water was still in my mouth! My eyes were twinkling, my teeth shining and my hair flowing in happy ness.
