

Here are a few activities enjoyed
during autumn term
2.

Safety week.

We were confident during this new experience and with our special visitors. We asked them lots of questions to extend our understanding of their roles.

(Personal, social and emotional development)
(Communication, language and literacy)

We listened to the different noises which came from the ambulance and police car.
(Literacy)

We use our prediction and estimation skills to guess how many criminals the police officer had caught
(Mathematical development)

We listened and asked questions.
(Communication and language)

We each had a turn with the equipment, technology and even the siren.
(Understanding of the world)
(Expressive arts and design)

Mehndi Patterns

We discussed with our friends the celebration of Diwali and looked at different Mehndi designs before making our own.

(Knowledge and understanding of the world)

(Communication and language)

(Personal, social and emotional development)

We always start our work by practising our name writing and holding our pencil in a secure pincer grip.

(Physical development)

(Literacy)

We worked on strengthening our hand muscles by decorating our Mehndi patterns.

(Physical development)

(Expressive arts and design)

We drew around our hands and counted our fingers whilst comparing the sizes of them.
(Mathematical development)

Santa's workshop.

We looked at a globe to see where Santa's workshop is and spoke about what we thought it would look like.

(Understanding of the world)

(Communication and language)

We used our imagination to design and build the toys for the children.

(Expressive arts and design)

(Physical development)

(Understanding of the world)

We had to find the right size piece of paper to wrap the presents for Santa.
