

THE POCHIN SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

The first half of the summer term has flown by and we are all looking forward to our last half term of this academic year! Please see individual class newsletters of what is going on in your child/children's class - we have lots of exciting things ahead!

Let's take a look back at the Summer Term so far . . .

Class 1 have been learning all about shape in their maths lessons!

Class 2 loved 'Superhero Day'!

Class 3 did an un-BEE-lievable job for their production of 'The BEE Musical'

Huge congratulations to all the children; it was an utter delight!

Class 4 have been really engaged in their creative writing!

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR YEAR 6'S WHO SURVIVED SATS WEEK!

The children have had a fabulous time going to Cadbury's World and Leicestershire Outdoor Pursuits!

DAVID ATTENBOROUGH 100TH BIRTHDAY

A great day was had by all to celebrate the legend, the icon that is Sir David Attenborough!

CELEBRATIONS

Class 1 and 2 fully embraced dressing up!

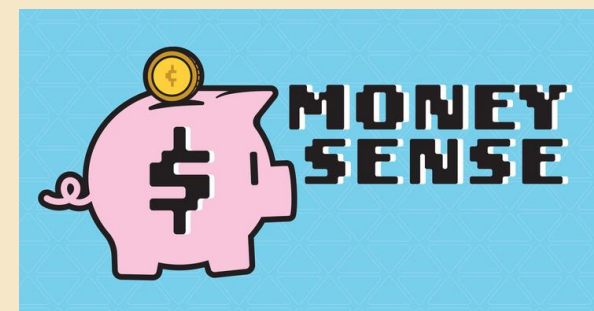

As did Class 3, 4 and 5!
